

Save the last word - The purpose of the technique (or dialogue structure) is to expand students' thinking about an issue, to provide a different look at an issue, to clarify thinking about an issue, and to question students' assumptions about an issue. All participants read a passage or article. Each participant identifies one of the most significant ideas from the text.

Save the Last Word For Me

What quote or statement stuck out from the text?

This quote makes me think about

This quote had meaning to me because

Save the Last Word For Me

What quote or statement stuck out from the text?

This quote makes me think about

This quote had meaning to me because

Save the Last Word For Me

What quote or statement stuck out from the text?

This quote makes me think about

This quote had meaning to me because

Save the Last Word For Me

What quote or statement stuck out from the text?

This quote makes me think about

This quote had meaning to me because