

Timed Pair Share is a Kagan Cooperative Learning Structure where partners take timed turns listening and sharing. It becomes a formative assessment tool when the teacher listens and notes the responses of the students in order to assess their understanding.

Think Pair Share

We just learned about _____.

Partner A share what you learned about the topic.

Partner B listen and record two statements and one wondering.

Partner B respond;

Statement 1-

Statement 2-

I wonder

Think Pair Share

We just learned about _____.

Partner A share what you learned about the topic.

Partner B listen and record two statements and one wondering.

Partner B respond;

Statement 1-

Statement 2-

I wonder

Think Pair Share

We just learned about _____.

Partner A share what you learned about the topic.

Partner B listen and record two statements and one wondering.

Partner B respond;

Statement 1-

Statement 2-

I wonder

Think Pair Share

We just learned about _____.

Partner A share what you learned about the topic.

Partner B listen and record two statements and one wondering.

Partner B respond;

Statement 1-

Statement 2-

I wonder