

Find Someone Who is a movement activity that focuses on content while inviting student interaction that is purposeful. Students reinforce their learning by explaining what they know to others who listen actively and agree or disagree. Moving throughout the classroom for about ten minutes, students ask and answer questions and record the responses on their own paper.

Find Someone Who

can give the definition for the word _____.

can give you three examples of _____.

Find Someone Who

has seen an example of _____ in a movie.

can explain the difference between _____ and _____.

Find Someone Who

can name all of the _____.

can list the step of the _____ process in order.

Find Someone Who

can give three non-examples of _____.

can teach you about _____ without words.