

Paint the Picture visually depicts students' thinking about an idea in science without using any annotations. This involves giving students a question and asking them to design a visual representation that reveals their thinking and answers the question. The picture needs to stand alone without labels and can be used to explain their thinking.

Paint the Picture

What if there was only _____ ?

Paint the Picture

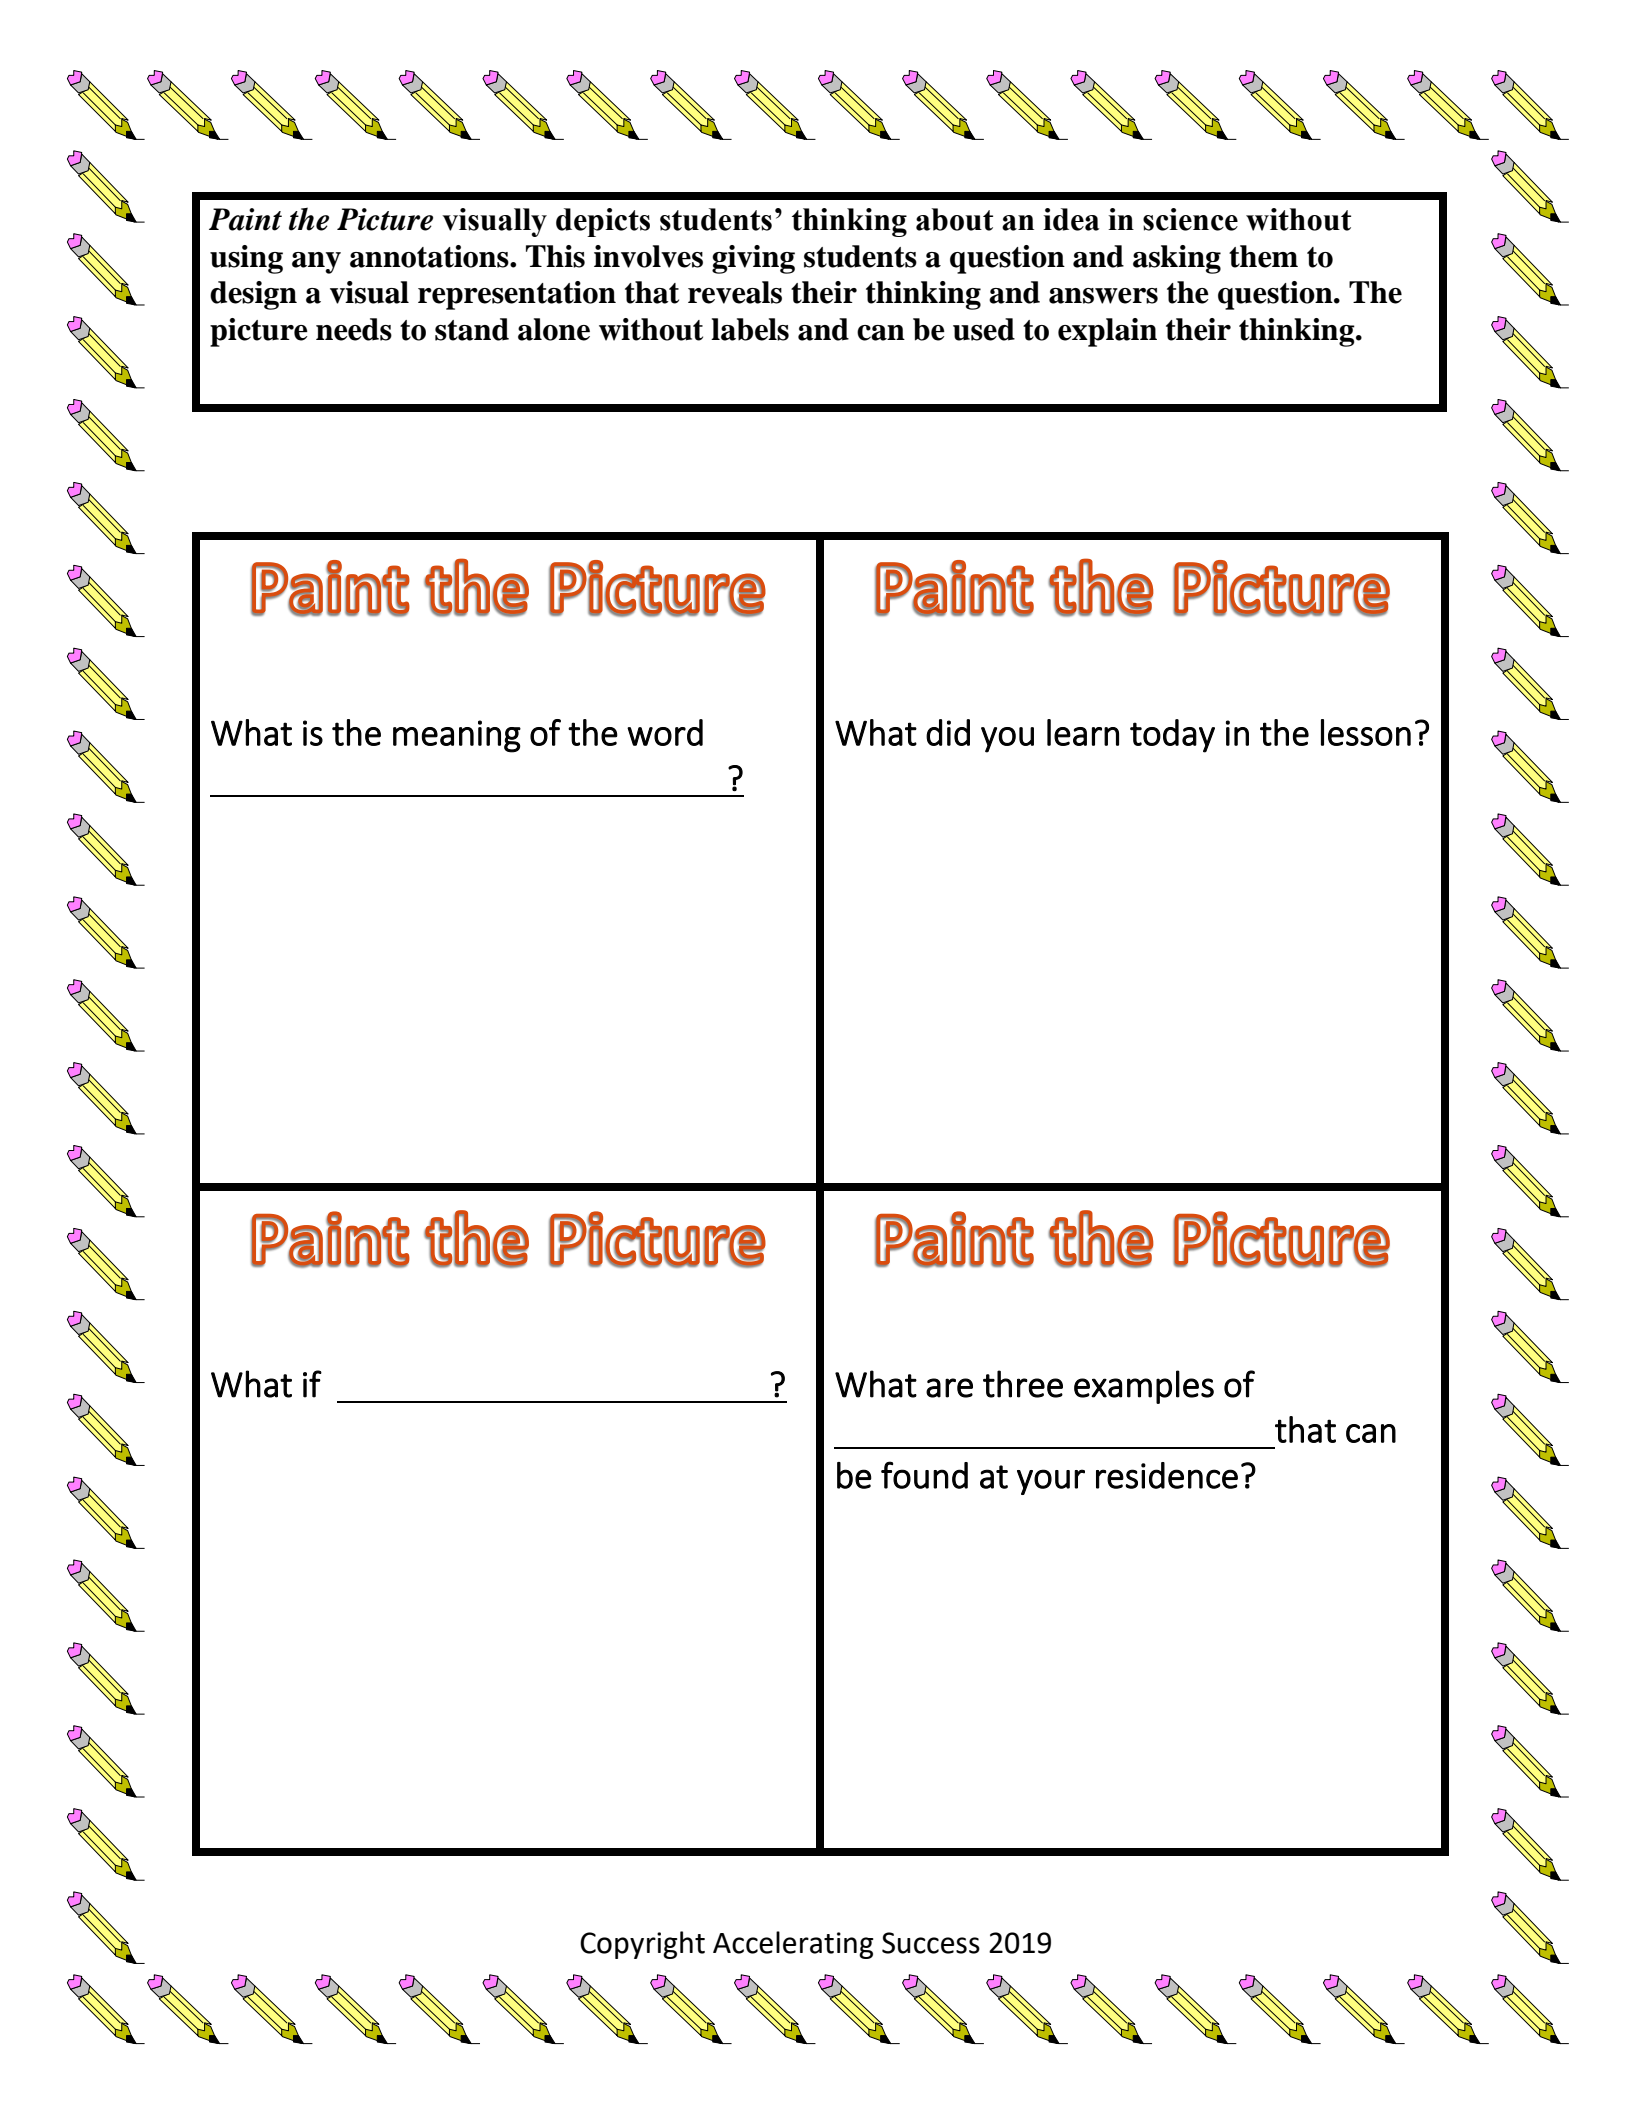

What is the difference between _____ and _____ ?

Paint the Picture

What would happen to the world without _____ ?

Paint the Picture

What are three facts from the lesson that I learned today?

Paint the Picture visually depicts students' thinking about an idea in science without using any annotations. This involves giving students a question and asking them to design a visual representation that reveals their thinking and answers the question. The picture needs to stand alone without labels and can be used to explain their thinking.

Paint the Picture

What is the meaning of the word _____ ?

Paint the Picture

What did you learn today in the lesson?

Paint the Picture

What if _____ ?

Paint the Picture

What are three examples of _____ that can be found at your residence?